The Sun and the Moon lived in a *cave. No light of the Sun or the Moon came out of the cave. Only the stars *shone in the sky.

The Sun and the Moon got tired of living in the cave together. It was too *crowded. The Sun said to the Moon, "I am the father of all life. It is not (A) [right] for me to be together with you in a cave. Go away and leave this cave for me."

"Where can I go?" asked the Moon. "I have no other home."

"Go into the sky," answered the Sun. "There is a lot of space for you in the big, blue sky."

The Moon was sad, but she (B) [] the cave. She *was scared to be in the big, blue sky, and then she shone there. She was only a *thin, *silver moon. She *hid behind the clouds. Later she was not so scared. (C) Slowly she showed her whole face. Everyone on the Earth said, "(D) [it] was beautiful."

The Sun saw the Moon in the beautiful, blue sky and got (E) []. The little Moon was in a better place than he was! He ran out of the cave and jumped into the sky. When the Moon saw the Sun in the sky, she was scared and ran away. She kept (F) [look] back at the Sun. Soon nobody saw the Moon.

Now the Sun had the whole sky to live in. He sent his wonderful light in all *directions. He made the Earth warm. Green plants and beautiful flowers began to grow. People danced and *prayed to the Sun.

But the Sun was lonely. (G) [] came near him. He had no one to talk with. The Sun wanted to find the Moon. The Sun went to look for her.

The Moon hid in the old cave. When the Sun came near the cave, the Moon ran out.

"Oh, Moon," shouted the Sun. "Where are you going? Why do you leave when I come near? Dear Moon, do not go away again!"

The Moon did not wait for the Sun. She went quickly into the sky. When the Sun came into the sky, the Moon left.

Even today, the Sun cannot *catch up with the Moon. Sometimes the Moon turns her cold face to the Sun for a short time. Sometimes she turns her back on the Sun and passes *quietly in front of him.

Now the Sun and the Moon *take turns sleeping in the cave. They travel *separately through the sky.
